

Martha H Grover
Helena, Montana

Biography

Born and raised in the White Mountains in Maine, Martha has spent the majority of her life on the east coast. She attended Bennington College in Vermont, where she received her undergraduate degree in Architecture. After going to Syracuse University in New York as a fifth year student in Ceramics, she decided to pursue a graduate degree in clay. In 2007, Martha received her MFA in ceramics from the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth. Since then she was awarded the Fogelberg Fellowship for a nine-month residency at the Northern Clay Center in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and the Sage Scholarship for a summer residency at the Archie Bray Foundation in Helena, Montana. Currently Martha is a long term resident at the Archie Bray. Her work has been published in Clay Times, 500 Pitchers, and 500 Platters and Chargers.